

The 50th Anniversary of the Treaty of Rome

Contributed by I Mediterranei
martedì, 27 marzo 2007

50 years of European cooperation have brought many concrete benefits to Europeans: easier travel across most of the EU without carrying a passport and easier cross border financial transactions in a single currency the euro. Millions of young Europeans had the chance to study and live in another country through EU student exchange programmes.

BrochureTimelineECAS MANIFESTO